LA BOHÈME

GIACOMO PUCCINI (1858-1924)

John Copley's enduring production of one of the most famously melodious and popular of all operas is a classic of the Royal Opera repertoire. With historically accurate designs by Julia Trevelyan Oman and an excellent cast headed by Hibla Gerzmava and Teodor Ilincăi, this 2009 revival, in which conductor Andris Nelsons makes a distinguished Royal Opera House debut, does full justice to Puccini's masterpiece. Filmed in High Definition and recorded in true surround sound.

Sung in Italian with subtitles in English, French, German, Spanish and Italian.
