

Der fliegende Holländer

RICHARD WAGNER (1813–1883)

Austrian director Martin Kušej's pioneering vision brings a challenging and provoking insight to Wagner's opera of love and redemption, with his singular ability to connect characters and their actions to the score. Martin Zehetgruber's spacious, multi-layered sets define the settings through which Daland (Robert Lloyd), Senta (Catherine Naglestad), The Dutchman (Juha Uusitalo) and the chorus move to great effect, fulfilling the fine conducting of Hartmut Haenchen, who elicits from the orchestra an unmatched performance of detail and clarity.
