LEOŠ JANÁČEK
1854–1928

The vulnerable young woman at the heart of Janáček's breakthrough opera is a signature role for the English soprano Amanda Roocroft. Here, in Stéphane Braunschweig's clear but deeply affecting production, she is partnered by the Slovak tenor Miroslav Dvorský, as the man through whom she finds redemption, love and hope. The complex figure of the Kostelnička becomes both tormentor and tormented in this fearless account by the great dramatic soprano Deborah Polaski.

Sung in Czech with English, French, German and Spanish subtitles
