

Die Zauberflöte

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART 1756–1791

'Die Zauberflöte has wonderfully strange things in it,' says the South African-born artist and director William Kentridge, whose captivating and thought-provoking production of Mozart's opera made its mark in five countries before reaching La Scala, Milan. Animated monochrome imagery, such as an acrobatic rhinoceros and a spectacular starscape, creates the illusion – for both cast and audience – of being caught inside the black box of an antique camera, while the play of brightness and darkness explores the possibilities and limitations of the Enlightenment.

Sung in German with English, French, German, Spanish and Italian subtitles

Co-production with Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie (Bruxelles), Teatro di San Carlo (Napoli), Opéra de Lille, Théâtre de Caen
