DON GIOVANNI

WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART 1756-91

The empty shell of the most famous libertine in history is revealed as a projection of the anxiety and inadequacy of those around him. In Kasper Holten's 'visually stunning' production (The Guardian) for The Royal Opera, 'Holten directs meticulously: the staging has ... exceptional thoughtfulness and attention to detail. The pace is sure, and characterisations and relationships are sharply but subtly drawn' (The Daily Telegraph). Led by Mariusz Kwiecien, the cast numbers many of today's most distinguished Mozartian singers. Filmed in High Definition and recorded in true Surround Sound.

Sung in Italian with English, French, German, Japanese and Korean subtitles
