

LA BOHÈME
GIACOMO PUCCINI 1858-1924

A penniless poet, a young seamstress, and a lost key: Puccini's passionate opera tells the story of a captivating romance set against the background of 19th-century Paris. The luscious score, with its soaring melodies and rich orchestration, brings to life the relationships between Rodolfo, Mimi and their friends, the painter Marcello and fiery Musetta. Acclaimed director Richard Jones stages a fresh and intelligent new production of one of the world's most popular operas, conducted by The Royal Opera's Music Director, Antonio Pappano. Recorded in true Surround Sound.

Sung in Italian with English, French, German, Japanese and Korean subtitles
